Chief Factor in the Subway Gets Big Manhattan Prize After Sharp Contest with William C. Whitney.

VREELAND CARRIED BID.

Head of the Metropolitan Made an Offer in the Name of the Surface Road Syndicate, but a It Was Rejected by Goulds.

Manhattan "L" stock went kiting higher at the opening of the Stock ranged whereby the Interborough Rapid Transit Company, which is the operating, not the constructing company, for the Subway, would absorb the Manhattan and guarantee the stockholders of the latter corporation 7 per cent. on all their holdings.

While it was not possible to get George Gould, for the Manhattan, or August Belmont, for the Interborough Company, to speak of the reported deal, little doubt was expressed in the bestinformed quarters that this arrangement had been arrived at. Belmont Outbids Whitney.

It was also reported in circumstantial detail that the Interborough Company won the Manhattan prize after a sharp contest with the Whitney-Widener-Ryan-Elkins combine of capitalists, who how control the great Metropolitan sur-face system of street railways. Both these companies are said to have been bidding for the control of the "L"-not in the open market, but by negotiation with the Goulds, Russell Sage and the other holders of Manhattan stock who work in conjunction with the Goulds and Mr. Sage.

It was recalled that H. H. Vreeland, president of the Metropolitan road, had a long talk with Mr. Gould the other day, and the Street understands that he was the bearer to the leading interests in the Manhattan of a proposition from the Whitney syndicate. What that proposition was no one outside of the parties to the deal knows, but that it was not as satisfactory to the Manhattan people as was the offer of the Interborough Rapid Transit crowd meems to be well assured.

Many stories were in circulation as to the exact basis under which the "L" would be absorbed. One widely believed was that the Rapid Transit Company would increase its capital stock from $35,000,000 to $70,000,000 and just swallow the Manhattan. Conditions attached to this act were said to be that the "L" must first issue new stock to the amount of $12,000,000, which would be used to pay off all the arrears of damage suits and so start the road with a clean bill Guarantee of Seven Per Cent.

Another was that, while guarantecing 7 per cent, to the L stockholders, the Rapid Transit Company would insist en all the earnings of Manhattan for the next two years going into improvements instead of being paid out in dividends. In other words, the 7 per cent. dividends Mould not be paid for t wo years.

Meantine the stockholders would get Avenue.

Meantime the stockholders would get nothing.

August Belmont told an Evening World reporter he was too busy to-day to make any statement concerning the reported lease of the Manhattan.

From the time he reached his office until late in the afternoon there was a constant string of callers. Many of them were representatives of banking firms. It was said that the syndicate to finance the big deal will be completed before formal announcement of the details is made.

A director of the Manhattan road said: "I have no positive knowledge of any deal for control. I am convinced from what I know, however, that some arrangement has been made by powerful interests concerning the Manhattan 'L' nock held by George Gould and the Gould family.

"After making an arrangement for the Gould stock the people after control of the road have gone into the open market and bought enough additional glock to insure them that control."

Vanderbilts Sell Stock.

Vanderbilts Sell Stock.

A brokerage firm usually acting for the Vanderbilts sold 15,000 shares in today's market at the top figure. It is said that the Vanderbilts and the New York Central have parted with their "L" stock on the theory that the Central would not need it now.

James H. Moore and W. H. Moore, of the Rock Island group, are said to have cleared a handsome fortune in the three days' speculation in Manhattan.

They held thousands of shares bought around 130 on the recent slump, and they did not part with it until the stock crossed 150. Their profits are said to be about $1,000,000.

Manhattan stock opened to-day with cossed 150. Their profits are said to be about $1.000,000.

Manhattan stock opened to-day with $1.000,000.

Manhattan stock opened to-day with $1.000 shares seling at 1531-2. It quickly rose to 1543-4 on sales of 5.000 shares and then declined to 153

So heavy was the trading that the decline was regained and the stock held firm around 154.

Later there was considerable selling for profit in Manhattan, which sent the price off to 1487-8. Then the stock rallied and closed at 151.

Within five days more than 500,000 shares of Manhattan stock have changed hands at advances ranging from 132 to 154 34, and the speculation in it dwarfed all other movements on the Exchange.

Interborough Rapid Transit stock was the feature of the curb market, being all other movements on the Exchange.

Interborough Rapid Transit stock was the feature of the curb market, being quoted at 120 bid, an advance of 10 points from the last sale.

It was noticeable that the stock was not offered for transfer even at this high price and the entire $35,000,000 issue acemed to be firmly held for higher prices.

Call money opened at 4 and 41-2 per prices.

The Wheat Market.

The Whea

The local cotton market opened steady to-day, with prices 2 points lower to 1 point higher. Trading at the start was fairly active and the market held firm. Liverpool cables were somewhat disappointing, but were not material factors in the early market. After the call there was considerable profit taking by commission houses and room operators, which sent prices of fractionally from the opening. Scalpers took the bear side for a turn.

The opening prices were: Nov., 8.30 offered: Dec., 8.28 to 8.29; Jan., 8.29 to 8.50; May, 8.19 to 8.20; July, 8.20 to 8.21; Arg., 8.50 offered.
